Phone: (901) 573-8016

Porter-Leath's Runaway/Homeless Youth Program provides 24-hour support to runaway and homeless youth ages 13-17. Youth are cared for in a safe place and provided shelter, clothing, and food by trained professional staff. The program provides peer counseling, educational support, and fun events to assist youth in getting off the streets. They participate in fun activities such as going to the movies, bowling, and special events. Youth receive 24-hour support, counseling, and mentoring services.
